

Event Creation, Resulting and Settlement (E CRS)

Product Overview

Opta's Event Creation, Resulting and Settlement (E CRS) service is underpinned by our market leading database and data feeds. Our feeds can be integrated into any 3rd party sportsbook systems, as well as bespoke in house systems and centralised data warehouses.

Our accurate, timely and robust feeds deliver business critical eventing and reliable validated resulting and settlement data. Event start dates and times are regularly checked and modified where applicable by our dedicated analyst team with updates immediately delivered to our clients. All resulting and settlement data is checked and verified ensuring maximum accuracy and reliability which the betting industry demands.
